MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Director, Office of External Affairs

STAT

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the Annual Convention of the National Military Intelligence Association

1. Action Requested: Approve request to speak at the annual convention banquet of the National Military Intelligence Association, Friday, 10 September at the Crystal Ballroom of the Officers Club at Ft. McNair. It will commence with cocktails at 7:00 p.m., dinner at 8:00 p.m. and your remarks at approximately 9:00 p.m.

2. Background: NMIA is a professional military intelligence association founded in 1973 at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. Members are either engaged in the military intelligence profession in the Armed Forces of the United States or are U.S. citizens who have an interest in military intelligence and support the role of MI in the safeguarding of our nation's security. The Association is the unofficial spokesman of military intelligence personnel of all the military services. There are members wherever United States military intelligence personnel are serving throughout the world. They have a membership of approximately 1500.

Last year their speakers were Admiral Inman, Senator Goldwater, and former Secretary Schlesinger. You could probably anticipate about 100 people to attend. Although the banquet remarks would be non-attributable, they should be unclassified. They do not anticipate any press attendance.

3. Recommendation: Approve request and have Public Affairs contact the National Military Intelligence Association. Sign the attached letter to Captain Brooks. If your schedule does not permit you to accept this invitation, recommend DDCI to speak to this group.
